WILKES COMMUNITY COLLEGE

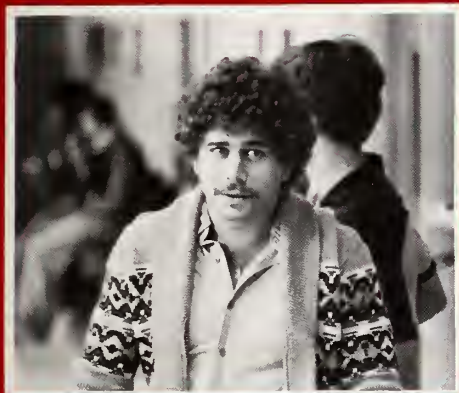

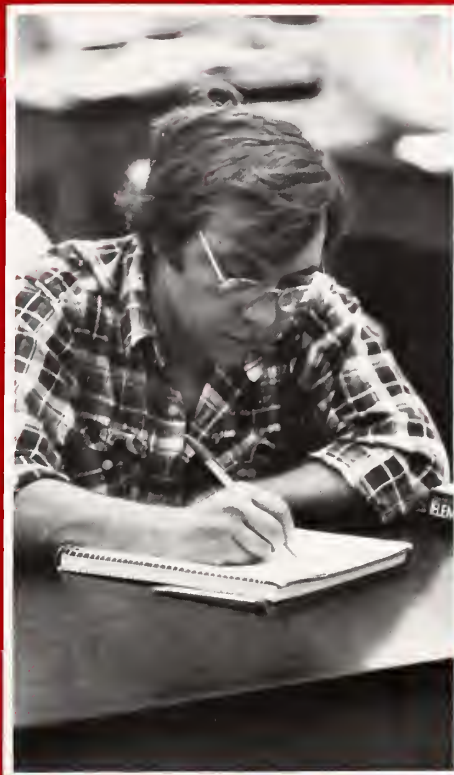

WILKESBORO, N.C.

VOLUME III

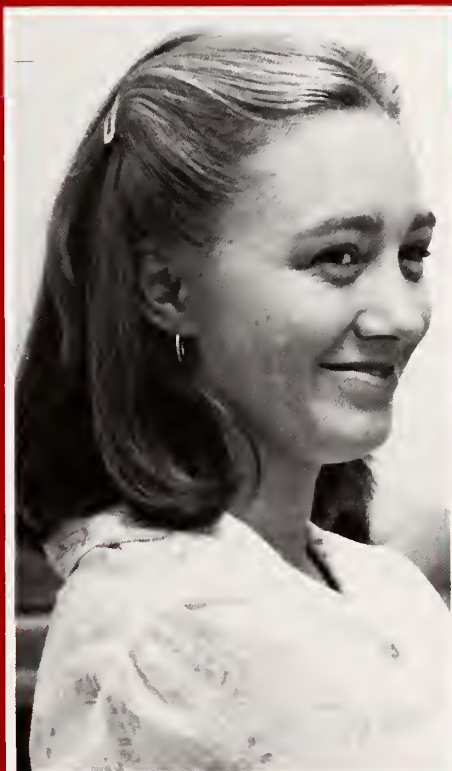

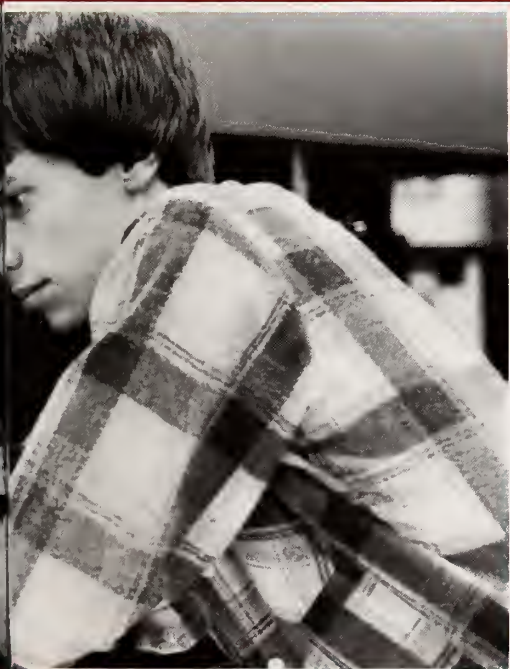

PEOPLE!

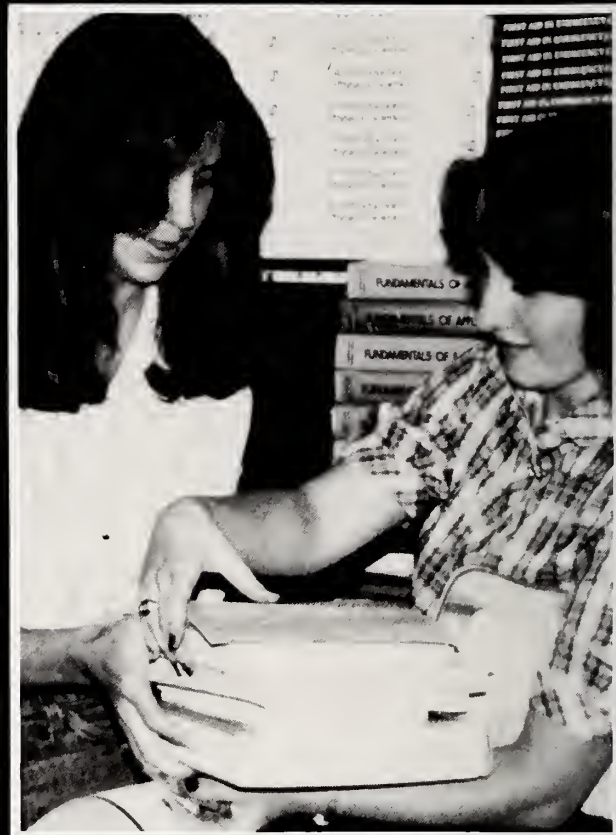

WCC is filled with them. We have almost any type of person you could imagine. From young, innocent yearlings fresh out of high school to experience and weathered "pedagogues" who are old hands at the game of college life, WCC thrives on this variety of people and we're proud to be a part of it.

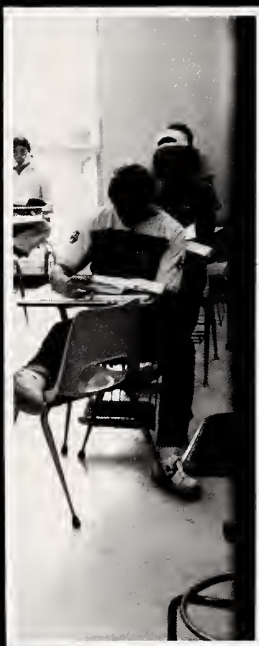

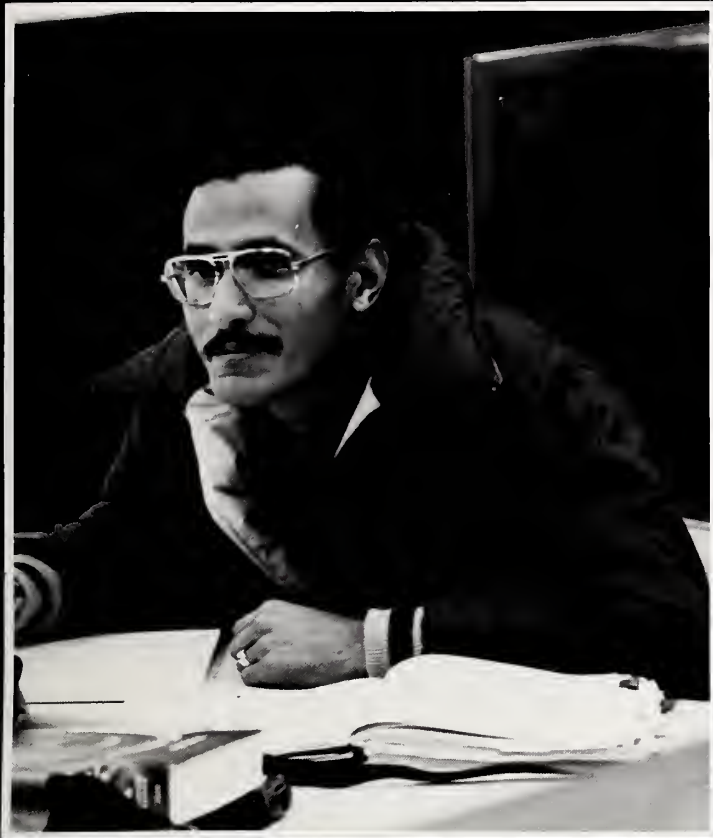

THE PEOPLE . . .

You need a place to go to study, recreate or just sit. Well WCC has an abundance of nooks and crannies to snuggle yourself into. Some locations get a little crowded, especially if you don't like balloons! Almost everyone can find a hole to crawl into or a "stage" to perform on.

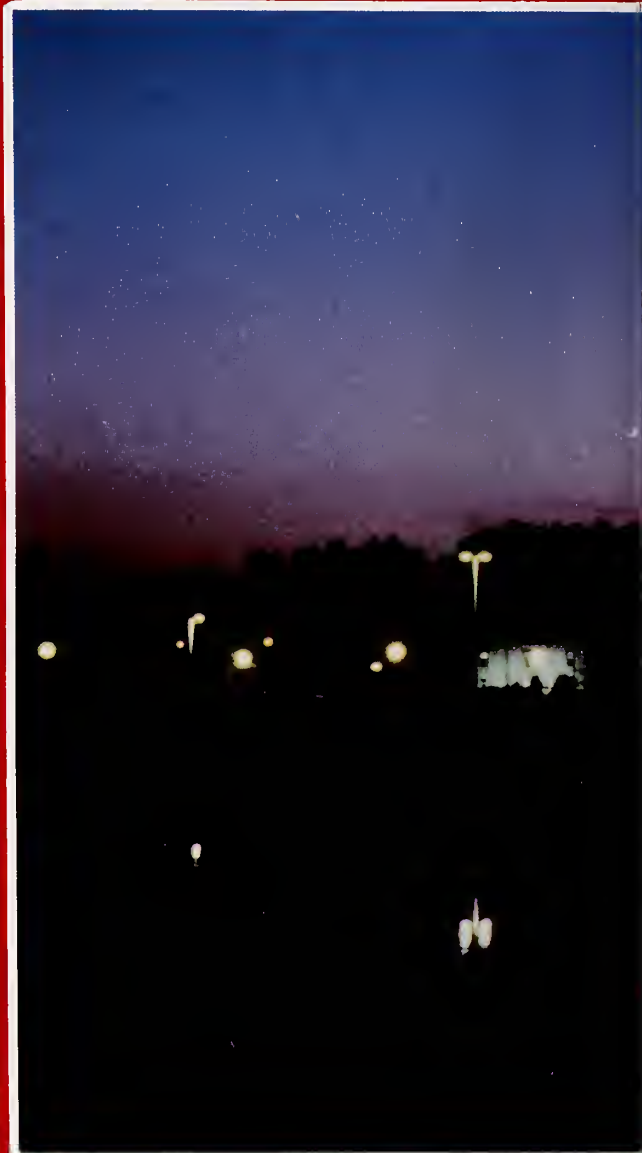

THE PLACES . . .

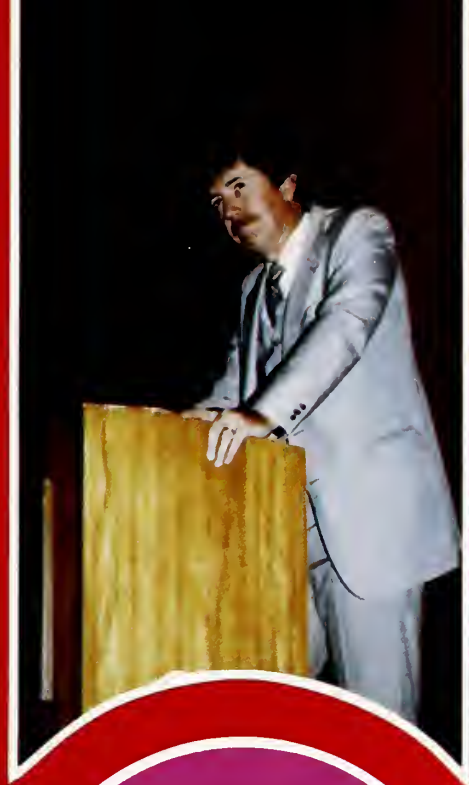

THE SCHOOL . . .

Wilkes Community College has come of age. It has all the ingredients that compose a learning environment. Our campus blends into the beauty of the surrounding mountains with its look of carved stone in the hillside, its floral paradise and platformed rock.

These walls and rooms are warm from the lives of thousands of persons and has brought a new hope and determination to our area. May these pages reflect for us all a sense of shared accomplishment and genuine appreciation for these days.

Dr. David E. Daniel

Look into the hillside
There she stands
Where truth abides
Within the grasp of man

Beloved citadel
Of rock and stone
Alive in deed
And alive for all

May thy walls stand strong
Through all times to come
Ready to serve those
To Whom life belongs.

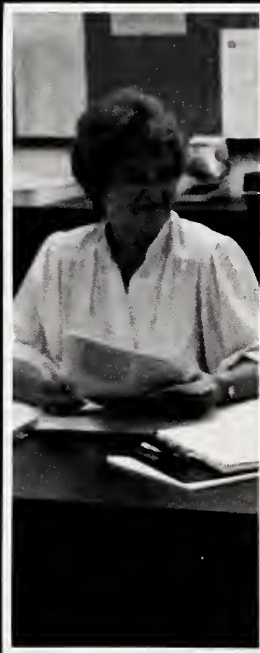

THE LOOK . . .

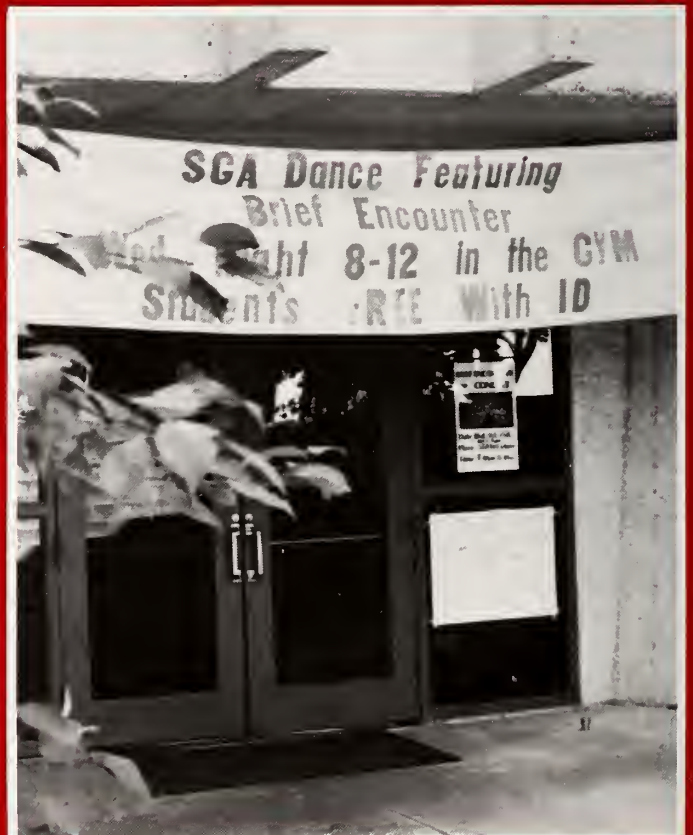

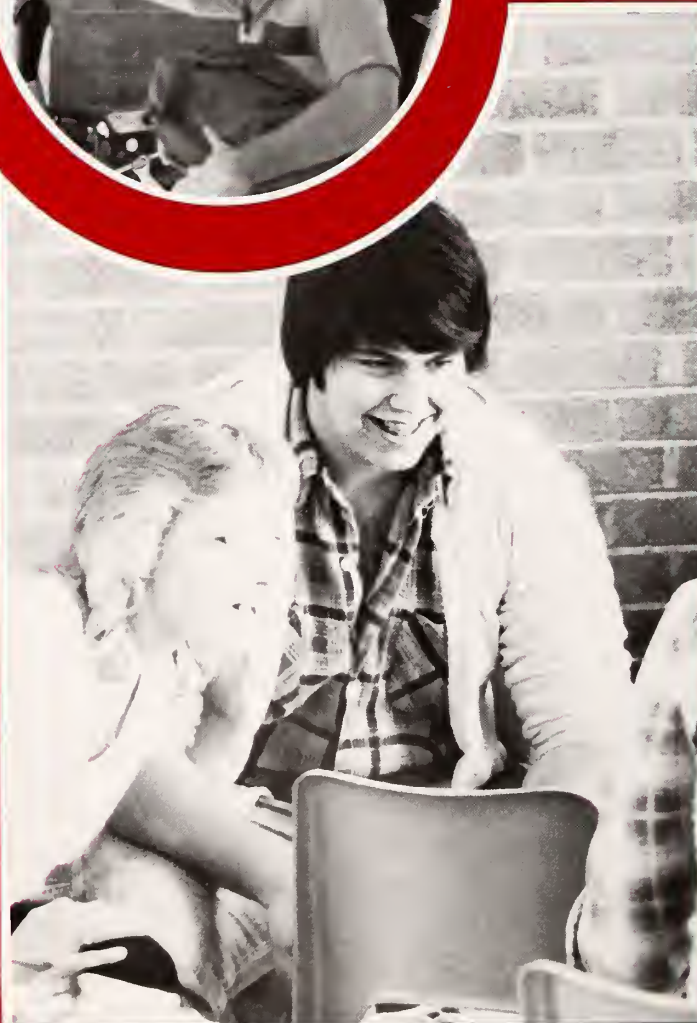

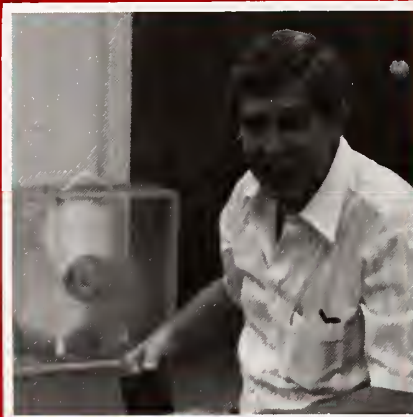

Whor a look! These expressions are choracteristic of the many happy, trifling, and sad moods of college life or Wilkes Community College.

Does WCC have spirit? That's like asking if a cougar roars! Just take a look around campus and you can see that the people at WCC really get into school spirit. From participating in athletics to everyday partying, it's quite evident that the people at WCC enjoy life!

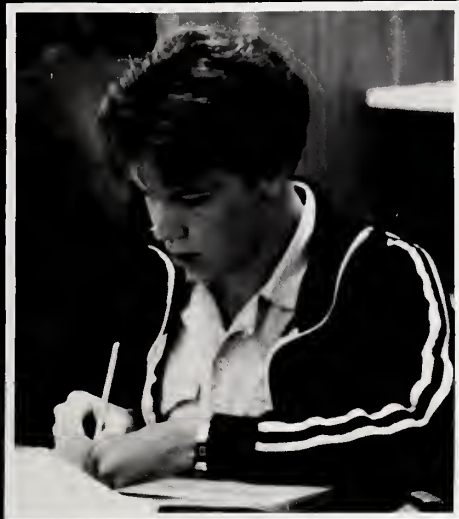

THE SPIRIT . . .

The previous pages are a collection of candid depictrng WCC students at work, at play, in humor and harmony.

COLLEGE THEATRE

The College Theatre opened its season to full houses with a rollicking Roaring Twenties Dinner Theatre. In the fall, Equus and One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest were produced in a very tight schedule. During Winter Quarter, Ken Green debuted as the newest director on the Theatre's staff with 6 Rms Riv Vu.

The College Theatre continues to showcase young, energetic talent in its many productions. The Gourmet Dinner Theatre, produced with The Hotel/Restaurant Management Program is one such example on a small scale. On a larger scale The Blue Ensemble, Hotel/Restaurant Management Team and Theatre produced another musical extravaganza for Mayfest.

Slow Dance On A Killing Ground featured some fine ensemble acting in the premiere performance of Campus Day Time Theatre.

The season was rounded off by student directed productions of No Exit and De Vu Vu, an original play.

SOUND OF MUSIC

The Jazz Ensemble was founded in the fall of 1975 by Joseph R. Ausrell, former Director of the Arts and Sciences Division. Together with current director, Jerry Bangle, the group gave its first concert that Christmas. The Ensemble had less than twenty-five arrangements, was short of musicians, and didn't have an encore, but the audience loved it and it has grown in popularity throughout the area.

It was originally conceived as an alternative performance medium for those interested in performing America's only original art form, and to receive college credit in the process.

In just six years, the Jazz Ensemble has grown in size and ability to the point where there are now twenty-one musicians including three outstanding vocalists. The Ensemble has purchased its own equipment, lighted stands, uniforms, and a music library of over two hundred arrangements. The Jazz Ensemble has played concerts, dances, and benefits both on campus and throughout the area, always just for the pure enjoyment of performing.

In addition to the Jazz Ensemble, Wilkes Community College has its own Symphony. The members of the Symphony and the many, many patrons who have enjoyed listening to their splendid performances have all agreed that the WCC Symphony is surely one of the best in its class.

The Chamber Ensemble also enhances the performing arts of WCC by adding a touch of simplicity with style. Composed of just three members, with an additional guest appearance by our visiting artist, the Chamber Ensemble creates its own mood and exemplifies elegance.
